

-Summer 2020 Assignment (Beamon)-
English 10 Honors, English 11, and English 12

Title: Larry Fitzgerald Jr.: This Is Not the Minneapolis of My Youth

Due: The First Week of School (Online or In-Person)

Format: MLA

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/mla_style/mla_formatting_and_style_guide/mla_general_format.html

Length: 5 or more paragraphs

Bibliography Page: 1 primary source (outside of the text), 2 secondary sources

Literature:

<https://www.nytimes.com/2020/06/07/sports/football/george-floyd-nfl-players-fitzgerald.html>

After reading Larry Fitzgerald Jr.: This Is Not the Minneapolis of My Youth, compose an analytical essay with a minimum of five paragraphs that examines Larry Fitzgerald's reflection about his upbringing in Minneapolis. What rhetorical devices does Fitzgerald use to convey his message? How do these rhetorical devices aid the reader in sympathizing with Fitzgerald's experience? What significance does this piece hold, published during a time of heightened racial adversity?