

George Mason University Facts Chart

Admissions Counselor Information	Alexis Jenkins ajenki16@gmu.edu
Session Recording (if applicable)	Session Link Passcode: !3YPfFNS
College Location (Town/State)	GMU is located in Fairfax, VA, 15 miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and the school has a free shuttle that takes you to the Vienna Metro Station.
School Size (Number of Students)	Approximately 37,000 students in total attend GMU. About 25,00 of the students are undergraduates and the school's average class size is 25-35 students.
Diversity Information (Minority % and special programs/organizations)	GMU is the number 1 most diverse school in Virginia.
Notable Majors / Programs	GMU has more than 80 undergraduate majors, 200 minors & concentrations, and 55 accelerated master's programs. Click here for more information.
Any Special Information about Graduate Programs?	GMU has a 3+3 program with its law school (3 years of undergrad, 3 years of law school to earn JD).
Clubs/Organizations Information	There are over 500 clubs and organizations on campus for students at George Mason. Click here for more information.
Greek Life?	Yes, GMU does have Greek Life, but the participation is relatively low. There are 40 Fraternities and Sororities to choose from, and the complete list can be found here.

Study Abroad Available?	Yes! There are 75+ countries students can travel to, with chances available year-round. Global Gateway Program is a unique program for GMU <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● You can study abroad second semester of your freshman year and pay George Mason University tuition (all of the programs for Global Gateway have a scholarship attached) GMU also has many exchange programs with other universities, which means you won't pay more for tuition to take classes abroad.
Athletic Division (DI, DII, or DIII?)	George Mason has 20 Division 1 teams: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Men's Baseball ● Men's and Women's Basketball ● Men's and Women's Cross Country ● Men's Golf ● Men's and Women's Soccer ● Men's and Women's Swimming & Diving ● Men's and Women's Tennis ● Men's and Women's Track & Field ● Men's and Women's Volleyball ● Men's Wrestling ● Women's Rowing ● Women's Lacrosse ● Women's Softball
Club / Recreational Sports Leagues?	Club Sports and Intramural Sports are offered at GMU. Some unique clubs include underwater hockey and quidditch.
What application platforms do you use? (Common App, Coalition, CBCA, etc.)	Students can apply using Common App or the George Mason website.

	Applicants are required to submit a HS Transcript, Essay, 2 Letters of Recommendation, and Test scores* (If available). See admissions information here.
What are your application deadlines?	Early Action deadline: November 1st (Consideration for honors college and scholarships) Regular Decision deadline: January 15th
What testing information is required? (Are you test optional for Class of 2021?) What is your average accepted SAT / ACT?	George Mason is a “score-optional” school, meaning that students do not need to provide test scores.
Average Accepted GPA	3.3-3.9 GPA, 1100-1220 SAT, 23-29 ACT
Parking for Freshmen?	More information on student parking can be found here.
Housing Information	Most freshmen live on campus, and students can find more information here.
Any Special notes for COVID-19?	To read more about George Mason’s plan, visit this website.
Dining Options	There are three dining halls on campus, and freshmen get “Anytime Dining” meal plans which allows you to enter the dining hall at any time of the day. There are also more than 30 restaurants on campus where students can dine for an additional cost.
Financial Aid Information (Deadlines, Forms, and Special Programs?)	GMU recommends applying by Nov. 1 for best consideration for scholarships. To see a full list of GMU scholarships, visit their financial aid website here.

Other Important / Interesting Facts

Students do a variety of experiential learning opportunities ranging from research to internships. There are also opportunities to have your undergraduate research funded.

Generally about 80 percent of graduates have a job or are in graduate school after graduation. There is a Career Services office that supports students through building their resumes, preparing for job interviews, and locating jobs.